

Share
Help
Educate
Development

KINGSTON MEN'S SHED

No. 7 December 2012

14 Gormley Drive, KINGSTON,

First the good news, to be followed by more good news,

Last BBQ for 2012 to be hosted by Evelyn & Arnold on Dec 6 @ the Shed

Notes from Dave Ellis

- Thanks to the generosity of the management of Channel Court the Shed will be holding a raffle at the new ground floor development at Channel Court from Monday 10th to Friday 14th December. Prizes are being made and all the other arrangements are being put in place but we do need volunteers (not necessarily members) to sell tickets. The days have been divided into two shifts from 10.00 – 12.30 and from 12.30 – 3.00. A few extra bodies would be useful for the both sessions, so please help out if you can since we need to maximise the income from this free, once a year opportunity. If you can help let me know at the Shed or give me a call on 62671757 after 2.00 pm.
- For the Christmas/ New Year break the Shed will be closed on Wednesday 19th December and reopened on Monday 14th January.

Regards, Dave E.

A bit of handy work by the boys, for the gardeners.

Now don't say they don't work.

Photos by Dave N

For the Christmas Raffle

Some fancy wood work by Dave, our illustrious wood working guru. Imagine what could be done if he really tried.

The 'GARAGE SALE'

All went well with Sale and around $500 was collected once the numbers were crunched (by high our high powered bean counters). Thanks to all who contributed or donated items and thoes who helped on the day.

DONATION OF TOOLS & BOOKS

We have recently had a donation from a member of the Bonsai Society of wood-turning tools and books on wood turning and wood working. These will shortly be available to be loaned out to members once the books have been recorded and cataloged. Thanks Evelyn.

“If everything seems under control, you're just not going fast enough.”
Mario Andretti

Have a Very Save Christmas and New Year

See you in 2013

